

Begin construction on Greensboro YM

GREENSBORO, N.C. — The groundbreaking exercises for the $28,000 renovation and addition project at Hayes-Taylor YMCA was held, Thursday.

The project will include a swimming pool and gymnasium. It will provide a four-story building at the rear of the present structure with the connecting area to be large and to house offices, lounges and facilities connected with pool and gymnasium uses.

The program will triple the YMCA's space and facilities.

When completed, the new unit will be known as the Hayes-Taylor Memorial Y, serving both men and women. However, YM and the YMCA will act independently.

THE PROJECT, aided by

Wife fined on 3 counts in shooting of husband

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Mrs. Lillie M. Moody, 27, of 308 S. 21st Ave., was fined $100 or 30 days Monday in Recorder Court on each of three charges of disorderly conduct, firing a firearm within the city, and illegal possession of a pistol.

Police testified that Mrs. Moody, about 4:30 p.m. Saturday, cut loose on her husband, Jim Moody, 31, near the busy corner of Washington and Main St. She hit him in the foot and neck and sent shoppers and passersby scampering in all directions.

Theology building dedicated at Smith

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — The new administration building for the school of theology at Johnson C. Smith University will be dedicated during a two-day conference Friday and Saturday, with churches of several denominations participating.

One of the highlights of the program will be an address Friday evening by Dr. Paul S. Wright, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., and pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Portland, Ore.

The sessions will begin Friday afternoon with the keynote address by Dr. Claude S. Conley of Harrisburg, Pa. Dr. Conley is chairman of the Council of Theological Education of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Lutheran says church should be integrated

CHARLESTON, S.C. — The Rev. Charles P. Carroll, administrative assistant to the executive director of the Lutheran National Council, made an appeal for integration of the races within the church here last week.

The Rev. Mr. Carroll made his plea at the annual service of the Lutheran church commemorating the 40th anniversary of the signing of the theses of Martin Luther to the door of the church in Wittenburg.

"Would you speak with a protestant?" the minister asked. "Christ did. Would you like a leper? Christ did. Would you take a colored man by the arm? It is time we realized the church should be opened to all people."

After the services, Mr. Carroll said he felt it was his duty to say that the church is integrated in the churches. He repeated: "Oh, yes, let there be no doubt of that."

Shaw schedules events for 90th Founders Day

RALEIGH, N.C. — The planning committee for Shaw University's 90th Founders Day celebration Nov. 18, has divided the Shaw family into seven major groups with a coordinator for each. They are:

Judge Armond W. Scott, Washington, D.C., honorary degree recipient; Dr. J. N. Mills, Durham, professional groups; Dr. C. E. Griffin, Norfolk, Va., ministerial group.

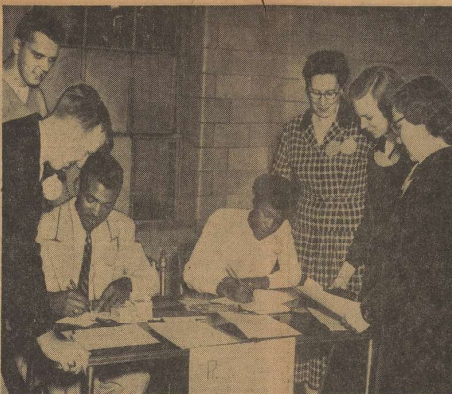

DR. RUDOLPH Jones, dean of State Teachers, Fayetteville, coordinator for clubs and chapters; the Rev. Herbert Parks, Greensboro, ministers in training; and the Rev. Herman R. Blevins, Ayden, is coordinator for teachers in training.

He is uniting the Shaw family and staff and set up a special group including themselves and the student body with Miss Wilmoth Carter, associate professor of sociology, and Otis West, president of the student body, as coordinators.

Shaw has had six presidents during the 90-year period. Dr. William R. Strasser is current president of the college, and Dr. Joseph E. Brown of Cleveland, alumni president. Dr. Dennis Branch of Newport, Tenn., will be Founder's Day speaker.

PLAN 90TH SHAW FOUNDERS' DAY

Committee for celebration includes, from left, Dr. William Fuller, Durham; Dr. N. L. Perry, Dr. N. H. Harris, C. DeVane, D. H. Keck, the Rev. G. E. Cheek, all of Raleigh; N. A. Cheek

METHODIST STUDENT PARLEY — Delegates registering for state conference at West Virginia State College last week are, from left, John Bowyer, Parkersburg, youth director; Vaughan Michael, president; Mrs. A. J. Young, chairman of state conference on Christian vocation; Misses Libby Rehn of West Virginia Wesleyan and Eileen Fisher of Glenville State College; seated, Eugene Austin, president of Wesley Club, and Miss Robbie Webb, both of West Virginia State.

TILL'S MOTHER TALKS — Mrs. Mamie Till Bradley, whose 14-year-old son, Emmett, was lynched recently in Mississippi, speaks at a press party given in her honor at Slaughter's Hotel. Left to right are Mrs. Senora B. Law-

TILL'S MOTHER TALKS — Mrs. Mamie Till Bradley, whose 14-year-old son, Emmett, was lynched recently in Mississippi, speaks at a press party given in her honor at Slaughter's Hotel. Left to right are Mrs. Senora B. Law-

Florida man dies in wreck

Car-tractor crash injures 3 others

PINEHURST, N.C. — One man was killed and three persons injured here last week when a car crashed into a huge tractor trailer—causing it to jackknife and overturn.

Willie G. Newton, 26, of Palm Bay, Fla., believed to be the driver of the car, was killed instantly. He was thrown clear of the wreckage by the tremendous impact.

The injured, taken to Moore County Hospital, with undetermined injuries, were Jerry Hunt, 30 and his mother, Mrs. Pearl Carlton, also of Palm Bay, and Philip Gibson, truck driver of Wilmington.

The trailer, owned by a Lumberton petroleum firm, was loaded with hot liquid asphalt. Thousands of gallons poured from the wreckage by the tremendous impact.

UNC case attorneys go to Supreme Court

DURHAM, N.C. — Conrad O. Pearson, chairman, North Carolina NAACP legal redress committee, and John L. Wheeler, president, Mechanics and Farmers Bank, have applied to the U.S. Supreme Court for permission to practice before the high tribunal.

Mr. Pearson and Wheeler will be presented to the high court on Nov. 14 by Thurgood Marshall, chief NAACP attorney. The two have been attorneys for the two students who applied for admission to the University of North Carolina, the case of which is now under appeal.

DR. H. G. Thompson buried in Columbia

Dr. H. G. Thompson, a prominent physician and educator, was buried in Columbia, S.C., on Monday. He was 70 years old and had been suffering from illness for several weeks.

He was a graduate of Allam University and Meharry Dental College. He died Saturday at the Veterans Administration Hospital after an illness of several weeks.

Bluefield minister cited for 25 years of service

BLUEFIELD, W.Va. — Pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Rev. Arthur L. Polk, was cited for 25 years of service to the church and the community recently at a testimonial service, with Philip G. Jefferson as speaker.

Mr. Jefferson, a classmate and roommate of the Rev. Mr. Polk at Lincoln University, accompanied the audience with the Rev. Mr. Polk's "Joe College" days and reviewed his contributions as a spiritual and civic leader in Bluefield for 25 years.

NAACP cites blonde firing victim, others

DURHAM, N.C. — Miss (Rev.) Jule Fritz, who was fired from her job as director of the Wesley Foundation at Women's College, University of North Carolina, was among six persons cited by the NAACP at its recent state conference.

Miss Fritz was reportedly fired from her post because of her activity as president of the NAACP's State Youth Councils and College Chapters which showed "remarkable growth" under her direction.

Lawyers Warn On High Court Decision

RALEIGH, N.C. — "I do not believe we will meet with state attorneys who will agree that North Carolina will 'solve' the problem of public school segregation, but each suggest a different method."

MR. JORDAN, Greensboro attorney, pointed out that lawyers are obligated by their oath to support federal and state constitutions to "advise local school authorities to proceed with all deliberate speed" in the elimination of segregation.

W. R. Rodman, the state attorney general, who was one of the four speakers at the 22nd annual general session of the North Carolina Bar Association, admitted that he has "no answer" to the question of maintaining schools will be "difficult."

Urges Stanley obey high court decision

RICHMOND — Dr. John H. Marion, noted liberal minister, handed to Gov. Thomas B. Stanley a letter from the Virginia Council on Human Rights urging him to comply with the Supreme Court Decision on desegregation of public schools.

NC Baptists buck voluntary segregation

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — The 800 delegates to the 88th annual session of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina unanimously declared that they opposed any plan of voluntary segregation.

The delegates adopted a resolution urging the governor to recommend "school adjustment" program which directed two proposals to the state's chief executive.

DR. J. H. JACKSON, president of the National Baptist Convention, told the convention that he proposed to set aside May 11 for all Baptists as a day of fasting and mourning over the segregation issue.

With reference to the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling on schools, he asked: "If we have a Supreme Court and fail to hear it, who will we hear?"

OTHER SPECIAL addresses were given by Dr. P. A. Bishop, Rich Square, president of the convention; Dr. W. R. Strasser, president of Shaw University; Dr. M. A. Huggins, general secretary of the Baptist State Convention; and Dr. W. C. Somerville, executive secretary of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention.

Dr. M. A. Huggins, general secretary of the Baptist State Convention, and Dr. W. C. Somerville, executive secretary of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, presented a budget of $130,000 with a $75,000 to Shaw University for the year 1956.

Pair wins $100 in rights suit

GREENVILLE, S.C. — A federal court trial jury returned a $100 punitive damage suit against Greenville County sheriff E. V. Chandler Jr. in a $5,000 civil rights suit.

The action was brought by Mr. and Mrs. James Mackey, who testified on last Dec. 11 that deputies of Chandler forced themselves into the Mackey home without warrant at night.

Price High unit notes UN Day

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — The 40th anniversary of the United Nations was celebrated at the Price High School presented a program on the United Nations; its purpose and work Oct. 21.

After the program, a Maple Car dance was presented by 12 members of the class.

Pair wins $100 in rights suit

GREENVILLE, S.C. — A federal court trial jury returned a $100 punitive damage suit against Greenville County sheriff E. V. Chandler Jr. in a $5,000 civil rights suit.

The action was brought by Mr. and Mrs. James Mackey, who testified on last Dec. 11 that deputies of Chandler forced themselves into the Mackey home without warrant at night.

THE JURY actually found against the Greens Falls Indemnity Co. and gave the company a $100 judgment against the sheriff.

Chandler's attorneys sought a new trial, on grounds that the jury had assessed a punitive damage but had not found actual damages, upon which punitive damages are based.

PLANS MADE FOR INDIA LITUSNOV, Ind. — An Indian day at the 1956 General Conference of the Methodist Church, and a three-day convocation here will highlight the observance next year of the 100th anniversary of Methodism in India.

THE THIRD grade welcomed Archie Bolden from Isabelle Wyche school. The group has been studying insects.

So far spiders, grasshoppers, ants, a butterfly and cocoon has been collected.

A rhythm band also has been organized. Robert Woods is conductor. The class was in charge of the chapel Oct. 14, Mrs. Jane

County seeks to validate its spurned bonds

GOLDSBORO, N.C. — The Rev. G. W. Todd and E. R. Williams of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. are members of a steering committee heading a drive to put over a $2,211,000 county school bond issue here Nov. 12.

The committee met last week at the home of State Sen. D. J. Rose, county chairman of the campaign. Of the proposed bond issue, $1,338,000 was approved in an election two years ago but was declared invalid because it specified the race of children to be served.

SENATOR Rose told the committee members at the meeting that they are now on a sound, non-racial basis. There are no issues but the education of our children.

BATTLE STICK PECKS AT DESEGREGATION RULING

NEW YORK — Addressing business leaders at a meeting last week, ex-Gov. John S. Battle of Virginia said the U.S. Supreme Court's decision against racial segregation "may destroy the public school system in many localities."

ty; the Rev. William Fuller, Durham; and Miss (Rev.) Jule Fritz, formerly of University of N. Carolina, fired for her NAACP activities.

Margaret Bennett, Montgomery County