Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director

January 28, 1956

From Letters to Editor column of The Pittsburgh Courier, January 7, 1956 issue -

"Regarding your open letter to President Eisenhower, Dec. 10 issue, calling upon him to send U. S. Soldiers into Mississippi to protect the civil rights of a million Negro citizens, let me, for one, say BRAVO!"

EDGAR B. ~~X~~REENER, M. D.
Detroit, Mich. Mich.

As stated before, it is good to know that your office is giving attention to such people as Dr. Howard, and I will be interested to read how this matter is concluded.

Incidentally, neither of the daily newspapers I happen to read . . and one of them is a very good one . .
has, so far as I know, mentioned this matter. Of course very few of our white people read The Courier, or similar papers. It might be well if more of them did so.

Very truly yours,

N. G. Sherouse
